

Rebecca's
life without

Go a day
something...

Rebecca's bus to school only comes three days a week. And because she's a wheelchair user, that means she misses two days of education and time with her friends each week – all because the transport isn't available to her.

...so that others
don't have to.

Go #ADayWithout
on International
Day of Persons with Disabilities
on 3rd December

Donate £1
to help support
disabled students
around the world
